Show Info:

What Is A Revue?

A "revue" is a show made up of various songs and dances. The biggest difference between a revue and a traditional musical is that revues may not have overarching plots, unlike a traditional musical where the songs are designed to move the plot forward. Also, a revue may pull from many different musical theatre composers and shows. This revue is a sampling of different songs from the Broadway Junior® collection chosen specifically to give cast members the biggest and best opportunities to shine.
